

MED-METRIX INTERNATIONAL PH-I, INC.

Employee Referral Program (ERP) Policies and Guidelines

1.0 PURPOSE AND APPLICATION

1.1 Purpose

The Employee Referral Program (ERP) is a Talent Acquisition initiative open to all Med-Metrix International employees to receive monetary incentives for recommending qualified friends, relatives, former colleagues and peers to apply for open roles in the organization.

Med-Metrix believes that the best way to attract quality candidates is through the direct recommendations of our employees who, in turn, are able to identify candidates who have the potential to be successful in the company. The company is committed to reward such employees for helping hire co-employees who will contribute to the company's growth.

1.2 Application

This is a Local Operating Guideline. It applies to all probationary and regular employees of Med-Metrix International Philippines, Inc.

2.0 OPERATING GUIDELINE

2.1 Policy

Med-Metrix International Philippines, Inc. shall implement an employee referral program to leverage employees' existing network in finding the best fit talents for select vacant positions and reward the employees for such referrals.

2.1.1 Definition

- A referral pertains to when an employee recommends a candidate to apply for a vacant position and that candidate was successfully chosen to fill the position.

2.1.2 Eligibility

- All probationary and regular employees employed by Med-Metrix International Philippines, Inc. can submit referrals for any vacant position. However, the following shall not be eligible to receive incentive should their referral be hired:
 - Any employee belonging to the Human Resources Department
 - Any MANCOM Member and above
 - Temporary or Fixed-Term Contract direct hires under Med-Metrix contract
 - Contractors, Interns or temporary staff working in the company.

MED-METRIX INTERNATIONAL PH-I, INC.

- Managers and Supervisors can participate in this referral program but can only refer someone for a position that is in a different team, department, office or function. The referring Manager or Supervisor cannot participate directly/indirectly in the hiring and selection process. This exception doesn't apply to executives and senior management.

Other Exclusions:

Any active applications received through externally published job vacancies, online (e.g. Jobstreet.com, Indeed, LinkedIn), campus placement offices, and other similar applicant sourcing venues and endorsements from any search firms. Applications/Resumes sourced and processed by current Sourcing and Talent Acquisition Team and is already within the Recruitment database.

Referring former ARMCO or Med-Metrix employees will not merit any referral incentive.

Such are deemed as "candidates already in process" and may no longer be referred by employees even if they have not been hired at the time their names were put forward as "referrals".

2.1.3 Guidelines

Requirements/Communication

- Talent Acquisition Team shall communicate to Med-Metrix employees the position and requirements through internal communication channels (email, bulletins, etc.).

Referring A Candidate

- All referrals must lodge an application through the company's Applicant Tracking System (ATS) and must disclose their referee's complete name and employee number during the interview with the Talent Acquisition Team.
- An employee shall be allowed to refer candidates to multiple vacant positions for referrals as long as the said candidate meets the published experience, skills and knowledge requirements.
- Spouse and family members can also be referred provided that there is no conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest foreseen as a result of such application.
- Candidate referrals shall remain valid for a period of 6 months only and may be redirected to other open positions for which he/she will qualify for within said period. After 6 months, the referred candidate must be resubmitted for processing in order to remain with Talent Acquisition's active file.
- In case a referred candidate is rejected for the position he/she was originally referred to, said candidate will not be processed for the same position within 6 months, but maybe considered for other open positions for which he/she may qualify for.

MED-METRIX INTERNATIONAL PH-I, INC.

- To give more employees chance to participate in this program, an employee shall be allowed to refer as many candidates per vacant position as long as the referral meets the qualification.
- Referrals shall be processed on a “first received” bases, based on the time and date of referral.
- In the event the same candidate is being referred by two or more employees or through Vendor, the employee source declared during the interview with Talent Acquisition shall be considered.

Interns and Part-Time Employee

- Part-time employee, Interns and contractual employees eventually absorbed in the organization would not qualify as “referrals”.

Process

- Referred candidates shall follow the same selection process as any other candidates sourced through other channels. Once the application has been submitted, the employee who has referred the candidate shall not be involved in further assessment process/steps.
- The Talent Acquisition Team shall inform the referring employee through email in case the referred candidate is selected.

Referral Awards

- All successful referrals for the positions formally declared by the Talent Acquisition Team shall be rewarded. A referral shall be termed “successful” only when the referred candidate is selected, joined Med-Metrix and completed the probationary period.
- The ERP incentive shall be paid for every hired referral based on the schedule below, subject to the validation of the HR Compensation and Benefits Team:

LEVEL	ROLES	INCENTIVE AMOUNT	PAYOUT SCHEME UPON REGULARIZATION
Level 1	Associates, Specialist	Php 3,000.00	Php 3,000.00
Level 2	Supervisors	Php 5,000.00	Php 5,000.00
Level 3 & Up	Managers & Up
Technology	Roles under Infrastructure & Information Data Management	Php 10,000.00	Php 10,000.00

Referral incentive payments will be included in the employee's regular payroll and will be subject to all applicable taxes as per the prevalent income tax status.

- Both the referrer and the referral should be on active employment status and not under resignation notice, at the time of payout.

MED-METRIX INTERNATIONAL PH-I, INC.

- Talent Acquisition/HR may launch other employee referral contests or campaigns to complement this program. Employees shall be informed properly of program termination or changes or complementing employee referral contests or campaigns.
- The company may at any time, at its sole discretion, alter, amend, withdraw or delete any or all the provisions mentioned in this Employee Referral Program policy.

2.2 Periodic Reviews and Reports

2.2.1 Reviews

- Talent Acquisition reserves the right to terminate and change the mechanics of this program subject to the needs of the business and market supply and demand for qualified talents. Talent Acquisition/HR will review this program regularly to determine its effectiveness and efficiency in addressing business requirements.
- This local operating guideline must be reviewed and updated at least once every 2 years or as the need arises to reflect any changes in business operations, information technology, environment, and/or the law.

2.2.2. Reports

- A report on the status and performance of the Refer-A-Pal program shall be prepared and communicated to relevant stakeholders at least annually. The report may include but is not limited to:
 - Number of referrals made;
 - Number of successful referrals;
 - Positions with highest number of referrals; and
 - Groups with the highest number of referrals made.

2.3 Statement on Waivers & Exemptions

- Any deviation, waiver and exemption, partly or wholly, to this local policy is evaluate and should be approved by the local HR Director and Country Head.
- The company reserves the right to amend this program due to business exigencies.
- The company reserves the right to interpret the provisions of this policy for what it was intended for subject to the fact that it does not circumvent local laws governing labor standards and statutes.