

SSS Sickness Benefits Guidelines and Requirements for Employees

To ensure the timely processing and approval of sickness benefits, employees must adhere to the following guidelines and requirements:

Eligibility Criteria

- The employee must be unable to work due to sickness or injury and confined for at least 4 days (either in a hospital or at home).
- The employee must have paid at least 3 monthly contributions in the 12 months prior to the sickness.

Timeline for Sickness Notification

a. Sickness Notification

	Prescriptive Period
	Home Confinement	Hospital Confinement
Employee to Employer	Within five (5) calendar days after start of confinement	Not necessary
Employer to SSS	Within five (5) calendar days after receipt from employee	Within one (1) year from date of hospital discharge

Documentation

Employees must submit the following documents for SSS sickness benefit claims:

1. SSS Medical Certificate (Form Med 01688):
 - o Complete diagnosis
 - o Recommended sick leave days, including recuperation period
 - o Clinic address, contact number, and license number
2. Hospital Records (if confined; priority):
 - o Admission and Discharge Record
 - o Operative Record / Histopathological Report (if applicable)
 - o Laboratory results, X-rays, ECGs, and other diagnostic reports
3. Full Screenshot of SSS Contributions:
 - o A screenshot generated from the SSS Member Login showing paid contributions within the required period.
4. Authorization Letter for the Finance Department:
 - o A letter authorizing the Finance Department to deposit the sickness benefit directly into the employee's payroll account.

Disbursement Process

The employer will advance the approved sickness benefit by crediting it to the employee's payroll account. The SSS will then reimburse the employer for the disbursed amount.

How to Submit Requirements

To submit your sickness benefit requirements, please follow these steps:

1. Email Subject: Use the subject line "SSS Sickness Benefit Requirements for Submission."
2. Email Address: Send the documents to manilabenefits@med-metrix.com.

By following these guidelines, employees can ensure the timely processing and approval of their SSS sickness benefits.