Substituted vs Non- Substituted Filing

WHAT DOES SUBSTITUTED FILING MEAN?

– MEDMETRIX is the only employer for year 2024

– An individual taxpayer will no longer have to personally file his own Income Tax Return (BIR Form 1700) but instead the employer's Annual Information Return on Income Taxes Withheld (BIR Form No. 1604-C) filed will be considered as the "substitute" ITR of the employee.

REQUISITES FOR INDIVIDUALS QUALIFIED FOR SUBSTITUTED FILING OF BIR FORM NO. 1700

- Receives purely compensation income regardless of amount;
- Compensation from only one employer in the Philippines for the calendar year;
- Income tax has been withheld by the employer (tax due equals tax withheld);
- The employee's spouse also complies with all the three conditions stated above;
- Employer files the BIR Form No. 1604-C; and
- The employer issues each employee BIR Form No. 2316 (latest version)

NOTE: All the above requisites must be present. The annual Information Return of Income Taxes Withheld on Compensation (BIR Form No. 1604-C) filed by their respective employers filed their respective employers duly submitted to the eSubmission facility of the BIR.

REQUISITES FOR INDIVIDUALS NOT QUALIFIED FOR SUBSTITUTED FILING OF BIR FORM NO. 1700

- Individuals with two or more employers concurrently and/or successively at anytime during the taxable year; OR
- Employees whose income tax have not been withheld correctly resulting to collectible or refundable return; OR
- Individuals deriving other non-business, non-profession-related income in addition to compensation income not otherwise subject to final tax; OR
- Individuals receiving purely compensation income from a single employer whose income tax has been correctly withheld but whose spouse does not qualify for substituted filing; OR
- Non-resident aliens engaged in trade or business in the Philippines deriving purely compensation income or compensation income and other non-related business, non-profession-related income. NOTE: Only one of the above requisites must be present to not qualify an employee and the employee is responsible for filing their own 1700 Form.
